Re: SEC v. Ripple Labs, Inc. et al., No. 20-cv-10832 (AT) (SN) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Torres:

Pursuant to Rule I(C) of this Court's Individual Practices, Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") respectfully requests that the Court extend the SEC's time to file an opposition to the letter filed by counsel for six amici curiae, dated Saturday, May 21, 2022 (D.E. 489, the "Letter"), until June 7, 2022. Though the Letter was filed as a "letter motion," the SEC understands the Letter to be a pre-motion letter as required by Rule III(A) of the Court's Individual Practices. Ordinarily, the SEC's opposition to this pre-motion letter would be due on Tuesday, May 31, 2022. In light of the upcoming holiday and other briefing deadlines, the SEC respectfully requests an extension of this deadline until Tuesday, June 7, 2022. This is the SEC's first request for an extension of this deadline. Defendants have informed the SEC that they have no objection to this extension request, as long as the SEC agrees that any response by Defendants would be due by Friday, June 10, 2022; the SEC has no objection to this proposed deadline. Counsel for amici curiae has informed the SEC that they have no objection to the SEC's extension request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s Ladan F. Stewart
